REASONS WHY
— THE —
REMINGTON FAMILY SEWING

MACHINES
Are Superior to All Others.

FIRST—THEIR SIMPLICITY,
The use of them is very easily acquired, and any girl of ordinary intelligence is capable of keeping them in order.

SECOND—THE CONSTRUCTION of the Machine is such that it may be run at a higher rate of speed than any Shuttle Machine now in the market. In factories where the rate of speed has been registered, over 1,000 Stitches per Minute have been attained with ease.

THIRD—THEIR DURABILITY
being so strong in all their parts and fitted with great mechanical nicety, and being free from the harsh jarring movements and friction so common in inferior machines they will wear a long time without repair of any kind.

FOURTH—THEIR ADAPTABILITY,
By a simple change of the needle and thread they will sew the finest cambric or the heaviest leather.

FIFTH—THEY HAVE NO ROTARY CAMS, Cog-wheels or lever arms to make a noise, run hard, or to get out of order.

SIXTH—THEY HAVE AN ADJUSTABLE Feed which may be raised or lowered at pleasure.

SEVENTH—ALL THEIR MOVEMENTS are positive and they cannot be thrown out of time.

Manufactured by the Largest Manufacturing company in America, possessing a world-wide reputation in the manufacture of their firearms, they afford a guarantee of perfection in work and construction.

No other sewing machine has ever been introduced so quickly and met with such rapid sale as the

REMINGTON

It arouses the jealousy, opposition and persistent misrepresentation of the older Sewing Machine Companies through their agents, and even the old Singer Company, through its agents devotes the largest part of its advertisements to show that it is not an Improved Singer, and that its calculations are upon a false basis.

"With malice toward none, and charity for all," it will be the aim of the agent of the Remington Sewing Machine
to afford to all an opportunity of testing its merits with those of any other, and let them make their own selection.

SENATOR BUSH of this county is chairman of the Senate Committee on Hospitals.

WASHINGTON Territory proposes to annex Alaska Territory and Senator MITCHELL of Oregon has introduced a bill to that effect.

THE discovery by the Legislature that it is spending $200 per hour ought to suggest the propriety of shortening the session as much as possible.

GOVERNOR IRWIN has appointed Col. WALSH of San Francisco Adjutant General. It is an excellent selection. Col. WALSH is a military man and a genial wholesouled gentleman.

BISHOP HAVEN of the Methodist church has involved himself in trouble The Methodist minister meeting recently held in Cincinnati, listened to a paper setting forth that in committing himself to GRANT for a third term the Bishop had fallen into a great error.

THEannouncement that TWEED had escaped, created considerable excitement. Then conjecture as to how he escaped occupied attention for a few days, and now doubts of his having left the city of New York is the subject of discussion. We shall not be astonished to hear that the pious old man has left the grub to become a butterfly or has been transformed into an angel. With the New York authorities anything is possible.

The Great Thoroughfare.

The opinion seems to be general that the proposition of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to build a Southern overland road from the Pacific to some connecting road on the Southeastern side of the continent for no other consideration than the land subsidy which Congress voted to the Texas Pacific some years ago, will be almost at once accepted by Congress. It is altogether probable that the SCOTT party will do all in their power to prevent the acceptance of the Southern Pacific Company's proposition, but as they can offer no reason for their opposition beyond a desire to secure the franchise themselves, their influence will scarcely be felt. Had SCOTT and his associates been willing to construct the road for the same consideration proposed by the Southern Pacific Company the road would have been in operation now and the wealth and population of Southern California more than double what it is at present. But they refused the terms and allowed the contract to expire by limitation while they were lobbying to secure the Government credit to the extent of $35,000 per mile on the road. Under the plea of competition they will now come in and insist that the nation shall become responsible for the interest on $35,000 per mile on a road that the Southern Pacific stands ready to build of the alternate sections of sand desert and mountain crag. A majority of Congress may be induced to refuse the offer of the Southern Pacific, but if it does, it will not dare to vote $300,000,000 of the people's money into the pockets of the TOM SCOTT party.

Tearful Sympathy.

We cannot endorse the appeals of the Express to the people of this city and county to stand between Senator JONES and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. Nor do we believe that the complaint of the ruinous reduction of the rates of freights and fares by the latter company will command a great amount of attention from the people. Further than this we do not believe that Senator JONES either asks or will receive from the people the tearful sympathy which our cotemporary is endeavoring to work up for him. The owners of the Los Angeles and Santa Monica Railroad are men of business accustomed to make or lose as their judgement proves good or bad. They carefully examined the ground before they invested in the Santa Monica Railroad enterprise. They knew the character and extent of the opposition with which they would be compelled to contend. They knew the resources of the country and carefully estimated the amount of patronage which they had reason to believe would fall to their share. They weighed the cost and estimated the probable profits and decided to invest their money. They followed the dictates of their own judgement. The road is in operation and besides being one of great value to Los Angeles city and valley it will, we understand, net its owners $1,500 over current expenses on the first month of its operation. This does not appear to be a case for slobbery sympathy. JONES and associates seem to be making money while struggling with the "cutthroat competition" of the Southern Pacific. They did not expect, as the Express seems to require, that the people would at once withdraw all their patronage from the Southern Pacific and bestow it on the Santa Monica road. They were aware of the California characteristic to shout for the opposition and ride on the old line and they fully understood that to secure patronage they must earn it. The Southern Pacific, JONES and associates and the people are all looking out for their own interests. Each railroad company is doing the best it can to secure patronage, and the people will ship and ride over the road that will cost them the least. The threat, that if we do not stand by JONES he will sell out and up will go the rates, has no terrors. If we withdraw all support from the Wilmington road the company will no longer operate it and then the Santa Monica road will hoist the rates. We want all the the railroads we can get and we will have all railroads the business of the county will support—no more nor no less. It is probably true that the Wilmington road is cutting the throat of the Santa Monica road, and it is also true that the Santa Monica road is thrusting a long sharp knife into the stomach of its antagonist. It is a contest the people did not incite and which they cannot prevent. When the giants have belabored each other until they are satisfied they will try some other scheme for making money—sell out or agree upon a remunerative scale of of freights and fares.

LOS ANGELES.

How Los Angeles Looks to a Stranger Visiting from the East with the view of Settling with his Family.

Though not laid out with taste or regularity, the location, surroundings, delightful atmosphere, and lovely settlements dotted along the streets and throughout the Valley of Los Angeles, are truly captivating; and a stranger is inclined to accept it as the "ne plus ultra" of habitation for a family. Nothing can be more inviting to one who has been raised and lived long in the rough, irregular climate anywhere east of the mountains, and as he contemplates the beautiful scenery, and dwells on the cheering prospect, his admiration increases until he feels like exclaiming "Eureka! Eureka!" But after remaining long enough to become familiar with all the localities of the town; the very few crossings from street to street; those streets or crossings so occupied from morning till night with crowds of rapid running vehicles, throwing up clouds of dust; the terrible odor arising from innumerable cesspools which cannot be drained or washed off, and Pontine marshes skirting all along down the unconfined bed of the bordering river, and see no prospect of improvement; he may still exclaim "Eureka!" (I have found)—not "Paradise Regained" but "Paradise Lost." The longer he stays here, the more he will become convinced that the city authorities do not know and are not likly to learn how to remedy these evils; and many such visitors wend their way back to their inclement homes, or some other locality where health and happiness are more in prospect.

Just twenty-three years ago, such, and even worse, was the condition of a city (then little more than a village) which now ranks third among the great cities of America. Its streets were badly laid out, its typography dotted all over with foul lakes and filthy ponds, with a sluggish, swampy creek running nearly around the city, breeding annual sickness and death. The people had gone on electing to their Councils popular men who were "penny wise and pound foolish," till Doctors grew rich and famous among them, and undertakers good caste to society. Such was the condition of St. Louis in 1853. But when that irresistible man, Luther M. Kennett, opened the veins of the city government, streets were opened and swipped through blocks wherever their natural course was interrupted; a perfect system of sewerage was organized and vigorously executed; the lakes and ponds began to disappear by dirt furnished from the operations of good engineering; the great project of building Mill Creek sewer was commenced, by which a large area of territory was reclaimed; a railroad policy of unusual liberality was inaugurated; experts were sent abroad to gather information in relation to all matters involving protection and development of the city; and soon the widespread fame of St. Louis for health, comfort, and educational and business facilities began to attract emigrants by thousands from every State of the Union and every quarter of the civilized world; and St. Louis was at once a great city, claiming soon to rival or outstrip the great metropolis of America.

If the present enterprising Mayor of Los Angeles should turn his energy that way, or if such a genius as Luther M. Kennett should rise up among us to shape and urge on a liberal policy of city improvement, the natural advantages of Los Angeles would enable it to attract such a number of thrifty and enterprising inhabitants, that a period of five years would make it the rival of San Francisco. But, whatever projects for improvements may be adopted, their success will be crippled by the material causes of disease, which will continue to rise from that large border of shaded, damp, decomposing soil on the river to poison the people; for the town must become more and more sickly as the mass of population increases. Why not cut a straight ditch or canal deep and wide enough to afford sufficient earth to form an embankment so high that the Winter freshets cannot pass over, and far enough from the mesa border on the east to allow the largest volume of water to pass between? It would be easy to plant it in grass or shrubs to grow and render it permanent. And in view of the impossibility of running out the sewerage of the city if it ever grows to be any larger, to a place where the decomposition will not be dangerous to the population and ruinous to land holders in the vicinity, a bold and adequate policy would suggest the easy practicability of extending it to the sea.

Brilliant Masonic Celebration.

A dispatch from San Jose dated the 13th inst. contains the following:

The grand Masonic celebration, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of San Jose Lodge No 1, F. & A. M., took place to-day. It was by far the most imposing demonstration of the kind ever held in this city. The brethren assembled in the City Market Hall, whence the procession moved in the following order: Schmidt & Schlott's band of twenty pieces; Knights Templar; Friendship Lodge No. 210; Howard Chapter No. 14; Delegations from the Gilroy, Santa Clara, Hollister, Watsonville and Santa Cruz Lodges, and San Jose Lodge No 1. Col. A. B. Romley, of Mayfield, acted as Grand Marshal, and the Knights acted as escort. The San Jose Opera House building was thronged to its utmost capacity to witness the exercises, which were very impressive. This evening a grand ball is in progress at the hall, under the auspices of the fraternity. The hall is brilliantly lighted and thronged with a large number of the four valley's fairest queens.

Grass is growing finely on the mesa lands west of town. Fine grazing for sheep now.

On yesterday at 7:30 A. M., the thermometer stood at 46 degrees above zero, with a heavy white frost visible.

Captain W. E. Greenville, of the United States Coast Survey Company, left our town on yesterday for the summit of San Bernardino Mountain. J. Q. A. Stanley, of Los Angeles was with the party, and as Mr. Stanley has been a Nimrod on our coast since 1849, the company will fare sumptuously. On the 8th of this month, they made observations from the summit of Cucamonga mountain, 8,400 feet above the sea and found snow a foot deep on the north side and Summer on the south side. Mr. Stanley killed two deer while on the summit of this mountain, and saw tracks of mountain sheep. The company have been two months trying to get triangular observations for a coast survey. They were three days making the ascent of Cucamonga.

At a stated communication of Phœnix Lodge No. 178, A. F. & A. M., held at their Lodge room in San Bernardino on Saturday, Dec. 11th, 1872, the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year: John C. King W. M.; John Anderson, S. W.; Thos. L. McFarlane, J. W.; Lewis Jacobs, Treasurer. I. H. Levy Secretary.

An amendatory order was passed to print by the Board of Supervisors last evening requiring hotel runners, hackmen, &c., to wear a badge.

Supervisor Bryan stated that there was an informality in the existing ordinance. Hackmen who had been arrested for refusing to wear the bedge were discharged by the courts on the ground that there was no provision in the ordinance requiring them to be worn. The city has on hand 80 badges of the regulation order which cost two dollars and fifty cents apiece. It is desired that hackmen and hotel runners should purchase and wear them.

Referred to Committee on Public Morals. Mr. Roach said that his object was to make wife beating odious, and he wished the lash could be composed of scorpions and placed in the hands of a mightier than the Sheriff.

Mr. Evans gave notice that he would introduce a bill providing for a suitable display of California products at the Centennial.

EASTERN NEWS.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.—The contract of 1846 gave the city right to purchase gas works in January, 1850. The Gas Company refused to surrender and the city immediately brought suit to make the company comply with this contract. In February, 1863, with the Council under Brown's administration, they fixed up an ordinance relinquishing to the company its control. By consent Mayor Britten brought suit set aside the ordinance and this morning Judge Golback did set aside the ordinance of 1873, and therefore the works and all the property since January 1870 worth three million dollars belong to the city with paying for the works.

The Centennial.

The Graphic of a late date says: The Centennial every day becomes more conspicuous and important. Most foreign nations are taking a hand, and most of the American States have made special appropriations. Kansas is building a $15,000 house for exhibitory purposes; Ohio is erecting a handsome building of free stones; Massachutts is to have a similar headquarters—even Florida has just made a liberal appropriation. The Commissioners announce that the grounds are full, and that no more general applications for space can be granted. Already three times as much machinery has been entered as they can find room for. There is every promise that the Philadelphia Centennial will be the greatest exhibitian the world has ever seen.

Anaheim Items.

[From the Gazette, 14th inst.]

The grass on the uplands is suffering for the want of rain.

Quite a number of hunters were out on Sunday. Ducks and geese seem, however, to be as plenty as ever.

We learn that it is proposed to extend the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad to Anaheim, if the people here will take a certain amount of stock in the road.

On Saturday night, Anaheim Lodge, No. 207, F. & A. M., elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Fred. W. Athearn, W. M.; Wm. Crowther, S. W.; T. J. Shelley, J. W. M. L. Goodman, (re-elected) Treasurer; A. W. Stienhart, Secretary.

Petty thieving is becoming a little too common in Anaheim. Yesterday norning a halter was stolen from Mr. Ey's horse, and a day or two ago a buggy robe was taken from Mr. Fischer's buggy. There is some one around who evidently has a fondness for picking up little things.

The Currency and Grangers.

EDITOR HERALD: The following Preamble and resolutions were adopted by the National Grange at Louisville, Ky., on the 6th day of their session, which adjourned December 1st, 1875:

WHEREAS, The national bank notes outstanding July 1, 1875, were $351,869,000, and the amounts of U. S. Bonds deposited with the United States Treasurer to secure the bank notes in circulation were $367,055,908; the interest on bonds at 6 per cent., $22,023,354; the interest on bank notes at 10 per cent. $35,186,900; and wastage by losses on bank notes at 5 per cent. per annum, $17,593,450, thereby making the total interest paid by the people to the national banks for the use of their currency $76,003,704, being $11.82 per vote for the votes cast for President in 1872, or $2,000,000 average to each State, or $12 each for every head of a family in the Union, all of which could be saved to the Government and the people by retiring national bank currency and substituting legal tender notes which should be interchangeable for Government bonds bearing 3.65 interest at the option of the holder, thereby saving to the hard-working, over-taxed, wealth-producing people $76,003,704 in interest annually paid to the national banks; therefore

Resolved, That we hereby pray and ask the Congress of the United States to remove these heavy burdens from the necks of the people by forthwith repealing the law creating the national banks, and to withdraw their issues from circulation and substitute the Government issues, usually called "greenbacks," in their stead.

The object of publishing this is to show the similarity of thought among men who have never investigated this subject.

WE TAKE IT FOR GRANTED

That these honest, unsophisticated farmers verily believe these preambles and resolutions were as true as the Gospel; and they are so firmly fixed in the correctness of their opinion that if you were to point out to them the batch of errors which they contain, they would say to you as the editors of the Express did when you corrected the errors of Mr. Barrows, "it is all bosh—a heterogenious mass of stuff."

Let us see how much truth in proportion to the amount of error there is contained in these resolutions.

THEY SET OUT

By stating accurately the amount of bank notes there were in circulation on the first of July last, also the amount of bonds placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the United States as security for these notes.

BUT THE EXPRESS SAYS THIS IS FALSE.

The interest is then calculated upon the bonds and upon the currency. The calculation so far as the figures are concerned is correct, but the conclusion is erroneous. They say the people are taxed to pay this interest on bonds and currency. It is a fact that the people are taxed to pay the interest on the bonds, and the interest must be paid whether the bonds are in the hands of the Treasurer or in the pocket of the banker. But it is not a fact that the people are taxed to pay the interest on the currency.

THESE BILLS ARE MONEY

in the hands of the banker, and no one pays interest except those who borrow it, and if the Grangers do not want it, they certainly will not pay interest on it. But suppose they do borrow it and pay interest on it, do they imagine that if the Government were to retire this national bank currency and issue legal tender notes in its place, they could get the legal tender notes without paying interest on them? Of course they would be worth just as much as the other notes, and the same security and same interest would have to be paid for them.

AGAIN THESE GRANGERS

Have added the nice little sum of seventeen millions caused by wear and tear, a loss of notes which they call wastage. Do they think that the legal tender notes would never wear out or be lost? What is the difference between the two? But still another error. They want a currency that they can exchange for bonds bearing 3.65 interest. And where is the economy in this? All their resolutions are based upon taking the heavy burdens from the necks of the people, and to do this they would retire a class of notes upon which the Government pays no interest and issue bonds bearing 3.65 interest. This was Mr. Barrow's idea of economy also. Although they set out in their preamble that the national bank notes were given in exchange for bonds bearing six per cent. interest, they seem to forget the fact, and in the next paragraph ask the Government to issue more bonds bearing interest with which to redeem these notes, and they do it on the principle of economy, too.

THEY REALLY BELIEVE

That this little change would be a saving to the over-worked, tax-paying people of over seventy-six millions per annum. Now these Grangers are above the average class of men, They were national delegates and no doubt the best talent belonging to the Order from every State was selected, and with all their wisdom it never entered their heads that money could not be obtained from banks or from the Government without paying interest on it, nor that it would only increase "the burden upon their necks" by issuing interest bearing bonds in lieu of the present bank bills; and

THE STRANGEST THING OF ALL

Is, they did not know that legal tender notes were as easily wasted or lost as national bank bills. There is no doubt but many of these Grangers were wealthy and successful business men, consequently full of that self-complacency that attaches to men who have had the luck to save a little money. They generally flatter themselves that they are the embodiment of all financial wisdom, and fully competent to instruct Congress, President and everybody else how to overcome financial difficulties. There is one honorable exception to this rule, however. A. T. Stewart of New York, when he was tendered the financial Secretaryship, said

HE HAD NOT SENSE ENOUGH

To run the machine. We conclude then that a man's private success does not argue that he would be a success as financial Secretary of a great nation. It is very easy to point out objections and show the faults in all national legislation, but it is exceedingly hard to suggest anything better. The combined wisdom of nations has labored for many centuries to perfect a financial scheme, but thus far it is a failure. We have more confidence in the financial ability of Americans than any other nationality, and we believe that Congress will yet bring us out of the fog.

B. L. PEEL.

Messrs. Straus & Co., No. 36 Main street, under the Backman House, offer to the public a fine stock of imported and domestic cigars, that can not be excelled outside of San Francisco. Meerschaum, briar root and other pipes a specialty. Smokers' articles in great variety and at very low figures. In addition to the cigar and tobacco stock, Messrs. Straus & Co, offer an elegant assortment of gents' furnishing goods at San Francisco prices. Anything in the smoking line can be bought of them at prices that defy competition. This firm are determined not to be undersold and can furnish a greater variety of first class goods than many of the San Francisco emporiums.

Messrs, Jones & Noyes, the well known auctioneers in Temple block, opposite the Court House, are now having extensive Winter sales of live stock, furniture, kitchen utensils and almost every article of value for farm, household or teamster's use. They can be relied on for any statement on articles sold and always sell without reserve to the highest bidder for cash. If you want to sell anything, do it through them, if you want to buy, attend their sales; and if you don't see what you want ask for it. Sales held almost daily and satisfaction guaranteed.

Messrs. I Rosenthal & Co., No. 8 Los Angeles street, offer great inducements to buyers of dry goods and shoes, and general merchandise. This firm are selling out below cost and must have their store cleared by the first of March. Their goods are not old shop worn, bankrupt goods, but fresh and saleable staple and fancy goods which they sell at bottom figures. As an extra inducement they offer buyers a discount of ten per cent. on all purchases over ten dollars. Call and see them and buy goods at your own figures. This is the only clearing out sale ever made in Los Angeles and buyers have every advantage.

The benefit of Butler and Russell at Turn-Verein Hall to-morrow night will be largely attended. These gentlemen are first class minstrels and the programme is an unusually good one. They should have a large audience to-morrow night and we believe the Hall will be filled.

Two napkins, fine white linen, three-quarters wide, were lost or mislaid at M. Keller's Harvest Home. It is believed they were taken by mistake, and, as they break two sets of table linen, their return to M. Keller is earnestly desired.

WOLVES.

Ye who listened to stories told;
When hearths were cheery and nights were cold,

Of the lonely wood and the hungry pack
That howl on the weary traveler's track,
The flame-red eyeballs that waylay
By wintry moon the belated sleigh;
The lost child sought in the dismal wood,
The little shoes and the stains of blood
On the trampled snow. You that hear
With thrills of pity or chills of fear,
Wishing some angel had been sent
To shield the hapless innocent—
Know ye the fiend that is crueler far
Than the giant grey herds of the forest are?

Swiftly vanish the grey wolf's tracks
Before the rifle and woodmand's axe.
But hark! to the coming of unseen feet,
Pattering by night through the busy street.
Each wolf that dies in the woodland brown
Lives a spectre and haunts the town!
By square and market they slink and howl;
Each night they snuff and snarl before
The patched window and broken door
They claw the clapboards and claw the latch
At every crevice they whine and scratch.

Children crouch in corners cold,
Shiver in tattered garments old;
They start from sleep with bitter pangs
At the touch of the spectre's viewless fangs,
Weary the mother and worn with strife,
Still she watches and fights for life;
But her hand is feeble and her weapon small
One little needle against them all.

In an evil hour the daughter fled
From her poor sheltered and wretched bed,
Through the city's pitiless solitude,
To the door of sin—by wolves pursued!
Fierce the father and grim with want,
His heart was gnawed by the spectre's gaunt.
Frenzied, stealing forth by night,
With whetted knife for the desperate fight,
He thought to strike the spectre dead—
But killed his brother man instead.

Oh ye that listened to stories told,
When hearts were cheery and were cold,
Weep no more at tales you hear;
The danger is CLOSE, the wolves are NEAR,
Shudder not at the murderer's name,
Marvel not at the maiden's shame;
Pass not by with averted eye
The door where the stricken children cry;
But when the tramp of unseen feet
Sound by night through the unseen street,
Follow thou where the spectres glide,
And stand like HOPE at the mother's side;
And be thyself the angel sent
To shield the hapless innocent.

He gives but little who gives his tears,
He gives best who aids and cheers:
He does well in the forest wild,
Who slays the monster and saves the child;
But he does better and merits more,
Who drives the wolf from the poor man's door.

Death of a Suicide.

Yesterday morning we published the attempted suicide of Mrs. Wilson, to-day we chronicle her death and burial. At the time we wrote the notice of her rash attempt to shuffle off this mortal coil, there was every prospect of her recovery, but afterwards nature failed rapidly and she died at a late hour on Monday night. An inquest was held yesterday and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts published in the HERALD. The funeral took place late yesterday and the remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of mourning friends. The deceased was a woman of mobid sensibility and the loss of her children so preyed on her mind that her reason was unsettled. Her husband is a hard working man, and has the sympathy of a host of friends in his misfortunes.

Messrs. Judd & Co., No. 5 Arcadia Block, have opened a general commission, forwarding and storage business, upon the Chicago plan. The firm have an immense storage capacity and are now prepared to receive consignments of general merchandise, household furniture or miscellaneous goods, either for storage or sale. San Francisco dealers needing storage room can be accommodated; parties breaking up housekeeping can find a safe depot for their goods for sale; farmers desiring to store their goods for a rise or to await a sale, will find Judd & Co. square in all their dealings. In a visit to Judd & Co.'s warehouse yesterday we found an immense number of articles stored or awaiting shipment. Wool, corn, oats, barley, household furniture and almost every imaginable article was safely stored, showing us at once that the firm have become a necessity to the business of Los Angeles. Parties loaning money on merchandize will find with Judd & Co. safe storage. Money advanced on shipments, or warehouse receipts.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of ten one acre lots in East Los Angeles, adjoining the Pioneer Building Association on the east side, and the Southern Pacific depot grounds on the west side. These lots will be put on the market on and after December 22d, and will make most desirable building sites. This valuable property is offered at $350 to $400 per acre, payable ten per cent. per month, thus permitting buyers to pay in easy installments. No better investment was ever offered, and thinking men desirous of having their money pay a large interest, should invest. Information or lots can be obtained at Barbee & Gates, Commercial Bank building, or of H. M. Johnston on the premises.

The Marysville Appeal says: There is a growing disgust on the part of citizens of Los Angeles with the management of city affairs, and a desire is expressed either to have the city charter entirely repealed and return to county control, or have the city managed by a board of three.

Messrs. Howard, Potter, Scott and the rest of the boarders at the St. Charles Hotel, went hunting yesterday, and killed two ducks, which they left at Washington Garden to pay Waldron for the little trouble to which they put him. They were very thirsty and the two ducks just settled the bill.

The capture of that Caliente stage robber was not much of a detective job after all. After robbing the stage his horse escaped and he fell and broke his leg. He then dragged himself several miles with a broken leg, and carried the express box with him, Capturing a broken legged highwayman does not require much skill.

He is a renovator, and he does not ask for money, and this is the way he gets at it. First. He has discovered certain process for colored, and black goods, by which after cleaning them, no matter how faded or rusty they may be, he restores them to their original newness of appearance, and then he only asks for cast off clothes as payment for his work, so don't let us hear any more about hard times but muster up all your old traps, and take them to his shop. His name is Horatio Marteen and he keeps at No. 24, Arcadia street, one door below Main and adjoining Mr. Signoret's saloon. dec1 1m

He looked like a Prince, or a retired Major General, as he stepped out of the Bazaar, corner of Main and Requena streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel, with a new black beaver suit, which he had just paid $18 for, and as he walked down Main street the eye of envy was on him, and numerous were the inquiries of where he had that splendid fitting suit made; and astonishment was depicted on every countenance as he answered that it came from the Bazaar, and he had only paid $18 for it. There are a few more left, so hurry up and get one before they are all gone. dec11-1m

You can't depend on Kansas flour. A loaf of bread passed into Leavenworth jail contained two files, a knife, a bottle of acid and a roll of money. A country which grows such wheat as that cannot expect to get ahead very fast.

SEWING MACHINES!

If you are wanting to buy a Sewing Machine, try a new Wilson and you will have no other.

A trial will convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all others, being adjustable in all its parts, every movement being positive, with a perfect tension and adjustable feed. It is simple, strong, durable and cheap, light and rapid running, doing all the different varieties of sewing from the finest fabric to the heaviest cloth or leather.

The latest improved Wilson will not run backwards, thereby avoiding the breakage of needles and thread and necessitating the removal of the goods from the machine while winding the bobbins as is the case with all other machines. HIGHEST PREMIUM AT THE WORLD'S FAIR, Vienna 1873. A very important improvement has lately been added to the Wilson. Call and see it before purchasing elsewhere. To try one is to buy one.

Ninety-seven Lots

FRONTING ON TEMPLE STREET,

On the East side of Pearl, and South of Canal and Reservoir streets. About four minutes' walk from Temple Block.

The Surveyor is now at work surveying these lots. They are not to be laid out in the stereotyped style, in square blocks—in order to get the greatest number of lots, with no regard to the grades of the streets—but

This Tract is Laid out in Park Form,

Each street is made to conform to the topography of the land, thus preserving the natural formation, and reducing the cost of grading to the minimum.

PARK VIEW TRACT

Commands a view of my Park, which will, in a short time, be the Most Beautiful Spot in the Country.

Already several thousand trees have been planted, and walks and drives made, and fountains constructed, at a great expense.

WATER

Is Already on the Tract.

As soon as the map and survey are completed, the lots will be offered at private sale, on the installment plan, as follows, viz:

On lots worth from $300 to $400, $20 per month; and on all lots worth more than $400, $25 per monih—together with interest at one per cent. per month on the unpaid balance.

Parties desiring to pay in full for their lots before the installments become due have that privilege.

I will hold these terms open till December 20th.

Parties who make one payment on a lot can at once take possession by building a house, and avoid the great expense of paying rent, and in a short time, by the saving of this one item of expense, can pay for their lot. Meantime,

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness, or private disease of any kind or character, which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would therefore say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage; remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering some or all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physician can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25. Send money by Post Office Order or Express, with full description of case. Call, or address,
